The North Carolinian.

A DAILY DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER,

Conducted on the principle that this is a white man's government, and must be controlled by white men.

THOS. J. LEE, Business Manager.

THE DAILY NORTH CAROLINIAN is mailed to subscribers at Eight Dollars a Year—Four Dollars for Six Months.

THE WEEKLY NORTH CAROLINIAN, the largest paper in the State, is published at the low price of Three Dollars a Year—Two Dollars for Six Months.

The name of no subscriber will be entered on our books unless the cash accompanies the order, and the paper is invariably discontinued at the expiration of the time paid for.

Raleigh, Monday, February 3, 1868.

How the People's Money Goes.

It is announced, with authority, that the Freedmen's Bureau, the existence of which will soon expire under the existing laws, is to be extended for a year from the 1st of next July. That Bureau is nothing but a political machine, worked by Radical management, for the purpose of controlling the negro vote in the Southern States, and of establishing the domination of the black race over the white. Directly and indirectly this contrivance involves an expenditure of twenty-odd millions per annum, which are mainly applied to party objects, and to the support and enrichment of an organized band of plundering office-holders.

The fact is well known that a secret organization has been formed all over the South, with no other object than to drill and discipline the black population as voters, and that the most unscrupulous means of deception have been employed to promote that scheme. Even the sacred name of religion has been shamefully prostituted to aid it, and professing ministers of the Gospel have been among the instruments used by Radical managers to traverse the plantations and mislead that simple, ignorant and credulous people. The chief of these reverend politicians is now in Washington, urging a continuation of the Freedmen's Bureau, upon which he and such other worthies fatten at the public expense.

While all the material interests of the country are suffering, and taxation burdens the people in odious forms, so that there is a universal demand for economy in the public expenditures, these Jacobins in Congress answer that demand by wicked and wanton waste of the people's money, and appropriate ten millions to maintain vagabond negroes in idleness. It is by such means as this that the public debt has been swelled to such colossal proportions, and that industry is crushed down without recompensing reward.—Everything is sacrificed to Radical rule, and plunder is its most active agent.—Nat. Is.

Escurial Palace of Spain.

This palace of the kings of Spain is one of the largest and most magnificent in the world. It was commenced by Philip II, in the year 1562; and the first expenditure of its erection was 6,000,000 of ducats. It forms a vast square of polished stone, and paved with marble. It may give some notion of the surprising grandeur of this palace to observe, that, accoading to the computation of Francisco de les Santos, it would take four days to go through all its rooms and apartments, the length of the way being reckoned thirty-three Spanish leagues, which is above 120 English miles. Alverz de Colmenar also asserts, that there are 14,000 doors and 11,000 windows belonging to this edifice.

The dangerous tendency of Radicalism is thus pictured by the New York "Evening Post," a journal in the interests of that party:

What is it, then, that the extremists at Washington desire to do in bringing forward dangerous and agitating innovations? The original measures of reconstruction were never popular, but those who deemed them harsh, injudicious, and even unconstitutional, acquiesced in their adoption in the hope of securing union and peace. But no sooner had their faith been settled than supplements, one after another, came in quick succession to disturb the solidity of that trust. The more the country lost confidence the more new tests were applied to its fidelity. Popular conviction seemed to be regarded as subject to acts of legislation which have grown in multiplicity and force as the general mind has fallen off. At length, as a consummation of this novel Congressional strategy, the reconstruction laws are declared to be implacable, and a system which in order to carry the country with it, ought to court every scrutiny, because conscious of the strength to defeat, is put on a level with the Medean statutes which forbid comment and question. The competent constitutional court is put out of court; Mr. Stevens, like Louis XIV. going down to a bed of justice prohibits decisions; and his committee, imitating the French Convention, converts the acts of the legislature from laws into mere edicts or decrees.

The following may be taken as a specimen of the "reconstruction" registration of colored voters in the Southern States. At the same time that registration was going on in Florida a census of the population was taken. That census showed about 85 000 whites and 70,000 negroes. Yet the whites register only 11 931 voters, while the negroes count 16,062 voters in a total male population of 35,000 negroes of all ages. This would make more than half the entire negro male population twenty-one years old and upwards, which is manifestly impossible.—In the three counties of Leon, Jefferson and Gadsden, the most populous in the State, the census showed 4,630 male negroes of the voting age; from these counties the Radical registers return 5,699 registered voters, which is 1,069 more than the census calls for. Barefaced frauds like these are resorted to by the Radicals to make up for the loss of votes in Connecticut, California, Ohio and other Northern States.

General Grant has a strong passion for the Presidency. But if Congress, after annulling the Presidency, shall invest all power in him as a General, will he be willing to surrender his power in order to become the nominal incumbent of an annulled office? Or will he depend on Congress to make itself rediculous and to mock the country by "rehabilitating" the office as soon as he goes into it?—Louisville Journal.

The loss of property last year by steamboat disasters on western rivers amounts to $3,000,000.

General Grant's epaulettes are not large enough to overshadow the constitutional liberties of the whole country, spread them as Radicalism may.

Mexico pays her President $30,000, which is $5,000 more than the American President receives.

White gunpowder is now manufactured in France, which leaves no trace in the gun. It is highly spoken of in French military circles.

Somebody says that Thad. Stevens is only living on in hopes that Parton will die, and so be unable to write his biography.

A committee was recently appointed in the Georgia "Black Crook" Convention, to ascertain if any one of the delegates had ever been in the Penitentiary.

Hundreds of negroes in Vicksburg live in caves, which they cut in the hills, as was done during the siege. They live on catfish from the river, chickens from the citizen's henroosts, and government rations from the Freedmen's Bureau.

The Chicago Tribune ungallantly says that "Miss Anna Dickinson is becoming a trifle superfluous as a stump speaker. She has also fallen into the habit of making statements which are not supported by facts, but are directly opposed to them. In this respect she resembles Wendell Phillips."

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,

WM. A HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Monday, February 3, 1868.

We alluded, on Saturday, to the illiberal and ungenerous spirit manifested by the Radical majority in the Convention towards the gentlemen, composing the minority of the body; and, also to the animus of that majority towards the people of the State, as exhibited in the rejection of the amendment offered by Capt. Durham to the resolution proposing the appointment of a committee to petition Congress for the removal of the disabilities of those of our citizens, in accord with the Reconstruction acts. Hood's resolution was simply a proposition to increase the number of Radical voters in the State, before the election to be held for the ratification or rejection of the constitution, which this Convention is ordered by Congress to frame; and decency and truth demanded that it should be so entitled. In proof of this assertion we call attention to the action of the Convention had in regard to the amendment proposed by Mr. Tourgee, a radical delegate from Guilford, which provided for the relief of that class of our citizens, who were Union men during the war, but who will not surrender their convictions at the behest of radicalism and assist it in its efforts for the destruction of the government, by giving their support to the plan of reconstruction established by Congress.

If any class of our citizens stand approved for their loyalty to the Federal Government and deserve consideration and favor at the hands of Congress, surely these men do. Through all the terrible trials of that most terrible struggle they kept their faith. Possessing their souls in patience, they maintained their principles and watched with strained eyes and eager hearts for the dawning of the day when the supremacy of the general government should be permanently established in the States, whose citizens were then in arms against it. Doubts may have come to them in the dark hours, but they wavered not in their allegiance. The day of their deliverance came and they promptly and cheerfully took upon themselves the duties and burdens of citizens. Those duties have been religiously discharged—those burdens patiently borne. These men deserve the respect of their fellow-citizens of all classes and opinions. Differ with them as widely as we may, they honestly entertained the sentiments they professed and they merit respect for their devotion and tenacity in upholding them. Especially do they deserve the sympathy and regard of the people of the States of the North. And yet how are they treated by this delectable body, which falsely claims to represent the loyalty and patriotism of the State? Are they welcomed with its acclamations and crowned with its honors? Nay, verily. But with a littleness of soul, which would be astonishing did we not remember the smallness of the space they have to keep it in, this arrogant and intolerant Radical majority refuses to recognize their claim to favor—if favor any decent man can call it to be pardoned by such a Congress—and a proposition looking to their relief is gagged by a call for the previous question. It denies their professions of fealty, derides and insults them, because, forsooth, they will not sell their souls for gain and barter their manhood for favor. Because these citizens of North Carolina will not support acts which their judgments pronounce illegal, and which their souls abhor as tyrannical, they are branded as outcasts, traduced and denied the enjoyment of their rights and privileges. Did the world ever witness so flagrant an outrage? Fanaticism has indeed run mad, and this majority has become blind to truth and justice in its wild strife for power and gold.

The people of North Carolina will remember these things. We beg them to treasure them. The opportunity to avenge these wrongs is coming. Then, as one man, let us consign these pigmies in the places of giants to the obscurity from which they sprang.

If the statement made by the Washington correspondent of the New York World, which our readers will find in our telegraphic column, is to be credited, the controversy between this government and that of Great Britian, in regard to the Alabama claim, is to have a speedy conclusion. The President, according to the World's correspondent, has grown tired of the vacilating policy hitherto pursued by Secretary Seward, and will demand of Great Britian a prompt and satisfactory adjustment of the claims, which, if refused, will be followed by a declaration of war. The people of the United States, like the President, are thoroughly disgusted with the timid, temporizing course of Mr. Seward. The government has all along been playing a game of braggadocio with her Majesty, or else it has long ago determined to compel the settlement of the claim for indemnity. If the former has been the policy, it is unworthy of a great nation, thus to endeavor to obtain the payment of a claim which it has not the courage to enforce: if the latter has been its purpose, it is high time that measures had been adopted for its consummation.

What the result of a peremptory demand will be, we cannot say. England is rent by divisions among her people, and the outbreak of a war with the United States would give a powerful impetus to Fenianism in her borders. In fact, it might lead to that most cherished wish of an Irishman's heart—the independence of Ireland. Thus encompassed by foes—for the friendship of France is fair but false—England may consult prudence by a compliance with the terms proposed by President Johnson.

Congressional Reconstruction Convention for North Carolina.

RALEIGH, Feb. 1, 1868.

Convention was called to order at 11 a. m.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Brewer.

Communication was read from Gen. Canby, in answer to resolution asking for a statement of the whole vote cast in the election for delegates to Convention. Ordered to be printed.

A memorial from Hyde county, presented by Mr. Rodman, was referred to Committee on Internal improvements.

With a very forlorn expression of countenance, Mr. Abbott, from the country of "Shakers," stated that the committee in pursuit of Finances (per dicem) had not arrived at any definite conclusion as to the best and speediest means whereby to obtain the "wherewith," but thought that the manner and means would suggest themselves by Monday, or in other words the committee would be able to ascertain the whereabouts of the ten thousands dollars, they wanted, by Monday. The committee did not ask to be discharged, so it is thought it will "try, try again," and if necessary keep on trying.

A Sweet majority report, from the committee, on "Legislature," handed in by one of the delegates from Craven, accompanied by a minority report, was ordered to be printed.

A report from the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the Wilson divorce application from Davie, was presented by Mr. Rodman, recommending that the divorce be granted.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, with considerable ability, opposed the report of the committee, and read from the Revised Code to show that granting divorces was foreign to the laws and policy of North Carolina.

Mr. Jones argued the matter at some length, displaying much knowledge of the law, and in a clear, concise and forcible manner sustained his position. He moved to indefinitely postpone the whole matter. Agreed to.

Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, from the Judiciary Committee to whom was referred Tourgee's resolution in regard to cost in criminal cases, reported an article to the Constitution that no one shall be made to pay cost in courts, except for counsel, until found guilty. Laid over to come up with other reports of that committee.

The resolution of Mr. Peterson, of Duplin, establishing in each county agencies for the purchase of lands for actual settlers, was referred.

Mr. Renfrow, of Halifax, submitted an ordinance for the protection of laborers. Referred.

Mr. Congleton, of Carteret, a resolution to raise a select committee of eight to negotiate a loan with Congress of ten thousand dollars for educational purposes, to provide homes for the homeless, and to develope our agricultural resources. Throwing his head to one side, clearing his throat with the air of one accustomed to parliamentary debate, and disclosing a countenance suggestive of the risk to sheep raising and wool growing in his section, looking very much like a goose endeavoring to peer into an upright bottle, or like a crane peeping at a "minner" from behind one of his native cypress-knees—the distinguished delegate from Carteret urged the necessity of action on his resolution before the assembling of the Conservative Convention, on Wednesday next, and earnestly begged that, if he was not allowed to speak on the subject, he at least be allowed to have his resolution "prented," which was not agreed to, Mr. Congleton, alone, voting to "prent." The resolution was, however, made the special order for Tuesday at 12.

Mr. Ragland, of Granville, a resolution raising a committee to ascertain from Gen. Canby if bonds and notes given since the first of May, 1865, and notes renewed since that time, are effected by order No. 64. Rules suspended and resolution adopted.

Williamson, nigger, from Franklin, a resolution asking Congress to loan the State from one to three millions of dollars, to be loaned out in small sums to aid persons engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Mr. Rich, of Pitt, substituted thirty millions. Referred.

(Here the President bethought himself of not having completed his toilet this morning, whereupon he out with a fine-tooth comb and proceeded "to hunt on his own ground."

SPECIAL ORDER——RELIEF BILL.

The question was upon the amendment of Mr. Watts, of Martin, who withdrew in favor of the amendment of Mr. Welker, of Guilford, (which simply deprives courts of jurisdiction over all cases of contract or debt since May 1, 1865.)

Mr. Graham of Orange opposed. He thought any and all staylaws unconstitutional, but if we are to have, and must have a stay-law, he would substitute the Convention ordinance of 1865, with such changes as the times and occasion demanded.

Mr. Watts of Martin, with a noise like the sound of many waters (rushing through a ditch,) rose to explain himself on the question of repudiation. He declared that the Sentinel's Reporter had misunderstood him. He had not favored repudiation, but had simply said the Convention had the power to do so if it saw fit.—All he wanted was "relief for the people" temporary now, permanent when the Constitution, yet unborn, shall have been adopted.

Mr. Abbott, from the "Shaker" country, favored the bill as reported, and was opposed to the amendment.

Mr. Pool of Pasquotank, then discussed the measure, and during his remarks stated that those gentlemen who contended that North Carolina was not a State were in error. North Carolina was a State, but, by the rebellion, she had lost every constitutional right, but, still, she had never lost her constitutional obligations. The present ordinance was an unconstitutional measure, for it interfered with private contracts. He did not believe the Convention had a right to go beyond the matters for which they had been assembled here. He gave notice he would soon introduce a minority report, which he hoped the Convention would adopt, as it would contain such relief as he thought this body could legally and properly give.

Mr. Tourgee of Guilford, said that the opposition to this amendment arose solely, that aid might be given to a corporation that had gone into debt, since 1865, (the Charlotte, Wilmington and Rutherford Railroad,) and, in discussing the constitutionality of the measure, declared that the State of North Carolina, at the close of the war, was left simply in a territorial condition.

Mr. Abbott asked the gentleman if everything that had been done by those State governments was void, marriages, wills, &c.

Mr. Tourgee replied that whatever has been done in these States, from 1861 to 1867, that depended for its validity upon recognition from an established government, was null and void.

Mr. Durham of Cleaveland, wished to know if the Judges of the Courts of law that had condemned criminals to death, had been guilty of murder.

Mr. Tourgee substantially replied, yes! He proceeded in his remarks for some time and closed by expressing the hope that men outside of its provisions would also be allowed the benefits of the ordinance.

Mr. Abbott again spoke in opposition to the amendment, and said that while he would vote for a proper and judicious relief, and for the bill, as reported by the Committee, still, as amended, it would entail ruin upon all of our industrial pursuits.

Mr. Heaton from Craven, concurred with Mr. Abbott, and, though he did not entirely agree with the provisions of the bill, yet, in his judgment, it did not come in conflict with the authority of the Constitution, which he held to be the supreme law, in regard to the repudiation of private contracts. To him the idea of repudiation was odious, and when that matter came up before the Convention, he would ask to be heard fully, in opposition to such measure.

Mr. Fullings, of Mecklenburg, better known as "Brass Buttons" Fullings, from his position as blockade runner to the Confederate Government for the supply of that article of "pomp and circumstance of war," did not think the Convention had a right to legislate at all beyond the framing of a Constitution, and especially was he opposed to legislating in favor of one class against another. He was opposed to all stay laws, and thought if the one existing at present had been swept out of existence at the close of the war, the country, generally, would have been in a more prosperous condition. He hoped that if any stay law is to be passed, Mr. Welker's amendment would prevail. He did not wish to be understood as favoring repudiation. He was opposed to repudiation and all stay laws, but if any was to be passed, he wanted a measure that would protect the whole people.

The gentleman, Mr. Fullings, read his remarks from a sheet of paper, and made such a bungling and confused mass of nonsense foreign to the question at issue, that it was impossible to follow him in detail, or make anything out of what he said. It leaked out, however, unfortunately for "Buttons," that he was simply for himself, and his property having been used by the "rebel" government, he was opposed to anything calculated to lessen his claims for collecting the money due him. He finally sat down, recollecting, no doubt, as little of what he had been saying as the other members of the body understood.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, was in favor of relief. Some measure of relief was necessary.—The people demanded it and would have it.—Members might call it repudiation, or by any other name, but relief must come from this body in some shape or other. Mr. McDonald extended his remarks to some length, which we are unable to present, owing to the confusion and applause on the floor during their delivery. The ordinance of Mr. M., published in another column, reflects his views on the subject of relief, and furnished the material substance on which his remarks were founded.

Mr. Congleton, of Carteret, having recovered from the refusal of the Convention to "prent" his resolution, was in favor of staying all debts or slaying them.

Mr. Parker, of Northampton, was opposed to staying the collection of new debts, but thought that with debts contracted upon the faith of property that had ceased to be property, a little indulgence should be granted.

Hood, nigger, from Cumberland, thought the ordinance, as reported, objectionable, but the amendment would carry universal distress over the country, and, instead of giving relief, it would give misery and wretchedness. He thought that Mr. Pool should be allowed time to bring in the minority report. It might obviate all the present difficulties. At all events, more time would be given to this most important question.

Mr. May, of Macon, Clay or Cherokee, thought the conflicting arguments on each were sufficient evidence to everybody that this body was utterly unprepared to act wisely, safely and soundly: and suggested the propriety of postponing this question until some future time, when the matter could be more carefully considered.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, agreed to the postponement of the question, but the time they spent here in discussion was also a matter to be taken into consideration; and he would agree to a postponement, if it could be done so as not to interfere with the regular business of the Convention in Constitution-making. These special orders were becoming too frequent.

Mr. J. then proceeded to discuss the measure at some length, substantially repeating his argument of Wednesday last. In the course of his remarks he said that the measure under consideration was only the entering wedge to something more serious. Mr. Rodman had already a printed document on the desks, that proposed a still stronger dose, as he was apprehensive that the first ordinance would have its back-bone taken out. He (Mr. J.) wished to forewarn the Convention of this outrageous design to introduce an unheard of innovation upon the organized law of the land. He proceeded to describe the dire effects that the adoption of such a measure would have upon the people and upon the credit of the State. The best stay law that he knew of was no stay law at all; let the people, among themselves, compromise their debts.

Mr. Jones closed by offering the following substitute for the whole matter:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the whole subject of old debts, prior to the 1st of May, 1865, be left to the civil courts, subject to such orders as the General in command may deem advisable, to relieve property from execution.

Harris, of Wake, nigger, wanted relief, but thought more time was necessary for consideration, as many were in doubt as to what course should be most properly pursued. Did not think it should be pressed to a vote to-day. But, at the proper time, a relief bill should be adopted and, if that was not done, the people would very properly vote the Constitution down. He moved to postpone the whole matter until Wednesday next, but withdrew, to allow Mr. Graham, of Orange, an opportunity to read a substitute, which he should offer, when the matter came up again.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, then read his substitute, which will be given when the measure is again discussed.

Harris, of Wake, nigger, renewed his motion to postpone until Wednesday next, and it was agreed to.

Mr. Abbott, from the "Shaker" country, moved to make his ordinance, in regard to the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, the special order for Monday next. Agreed to.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until Monday next, at 11 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

The President has recognized Augustin Roderquez as Spanish Consul at Galveston.

A bill was sent to the President to-day authorizing the sale of thirty-five of the one hundred and fifty-four ironclads.

The Attorney General has given an opinion in regard to the sale of the stock belonging to the Government in the Dismal Swamp Canal. He holds that the United States are simply stockholders, and a sale would be merely a transfer of personal property. He is at a loss to know how stock can be sold with a guarantee from purchasers that the canal should be kept open. The sale under the recent act of Congress is postponed.

The Ways and Means Committee has agreed to the Senate amendment to the Whiskey Metre Bill. The bill will doubtless pass the House. It authorizes the appointment of five commissioners to act with President Henry and Professor Hilyard of the Smithsonian Institute.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

SENATE.—No session.

HOUSE.—The President was asked whether he had appointed certain special agents as postmasters, who had been rejected by the Senate, and, if so, under what law such appointments were made.

The case of John Young Brown was resumed. Mr. Beck advocated Mr. Brown's admission, denying the right of the House to extend its enquiries beyond the Constitutional restrictions.—If the member elected took the oath he had a right to the seat, and charges of disloyalty could be investigated afterwards. If found guilty, the House could, by a two-thirds vote, expel him.

Mr. Knott, of Ky., also advocated the admission of his colleague.

In consequence of the sickness of Mr. Kerr, a member of the committee, action was postponed until Monday.

Mr. Brooks, of N. Y., presented a petition from many citizens of New York praying the removal of the income tax. Adjourned.

America's Ultimatum to Great Britain.

The New York World of this morning had the following: "Washington Jan. 31st. President Johnson is to declare to Great Britain the American ultimatum. The tergiversation of Secretary Seward is of avail no more. Another and a higher authority has determined upon the course which is to be pursued in respect to the claims of the United States government upon Great Britain. I am authorized to state most confidently and decisively that the legitimate demands which have been too meekly urged by the Secretary of State upon the British Cabinet are to be enforced at whatever hazard. The new British Minister, Mr. Thornton, will probably be presented to the President on Tuesday. Although the addresses that are to be exchanged between the President and Mr. Thornton may be guarded and serene, the fact yet remains that a speedy and satisfactory response must be made by the British Government to the ultimatum of the Executive of the United States or else a declaration of war against Great Britain must inevitably ensue."

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. H. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State dress.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

"RELIEF FOR THE PEOPLE."

This is the cry of the Convention of North Carolina—the watchword of the Republican party of the State.

The people of North Carolina doubtless want relief if any people ever did, but they are not likely to obtain it through the medium of this nondescript and infamous concern, quartered in the State House at an expense to the people of some twelve hundred dollars a day. This great body has now been in session seventeen days, at a cost of not less than twenty thousand dollars, yet what measure of relief has been perfected, or projected even? Still the cry is relief, and members insist that relief must be had.

If the people of North Carolina are depending on this Convention for relief—a substantial and beneficial relief—they are doomed to disappointment.

The Convention will not even attend to its legitimate work, is slow to touch upon the business it was called to perform, and it is idle, worse than folly to think of relief or benefit from a set of men who neither know, or care what they are doing, beyond getting eight dollars for sitting in their seats three hours each day.

LIVING IN GLASS HOUSES.

When those who live in glass houses will persist in throwing stones, they should not complain if the same articles are returned.

Mr. Ashley's denunciation of this paper was well received in the Convention the other day, and his reference to blackness of heart and cravenness of souls was met by hearty endorsement.

Now there are men sitting in that body "the wisest and most respectable ever convened in the State," who have been guilty of every crime known to law and humanity—to some of these we purpose devoting a portion of our time and attention, and we hope to be able to accomplish something in the way of ventilating and cleaning out this Augean stable of radicalism.

We expect to be able to prove that radical rascality, loyal infamy and human depravity are not confined to a few simply of that body. Men high in civil position, demanding the respect of men, have taken seats there, whose past records are not as bright and free from stain as the escutcheon of the delegate from New Hanover is claimed to be.

Our man is there.

KISSING GOES BY FAVORS.

One of the delegates to the Convention from Guilford, the late judicial aspirant, Mr. Tourgee, obtained or took a brief leave of absence on Saturday, and we presume he will spend the short respite from his labors in the suburbs of Greensboro.

Before going, the distinguished representative of the people of glorious old Guilford took an affectionate adieu of the nigger delegate of Wake, kissing that sable gentleman at parting.

Mr. Tourgee may, for all we care to the contrary, kiss the entire nigger delegation on the floor, including their kith and kin, but we object very decidedly to any such performance on the part of a representative of the people of Guilford county, if Mr. Tourgee considers himself the representative of that people.

THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.

The distressed and debt-ridden people of North Carolina have a right to know what duties this officer, hitherto unknown to them, performs on the floor of the Convention.

The new office was created against the most earnest protest of the Conservative members of the Convention, as well as that of many native radicals composing that body. But the republican caucus determined that such an office should be made, merely that a radical adventurer might be upheld and supported at the expense of the hard-working people of the State. Not only is the office a sinecure, but the person elected to the position was advertised by one of our courts, less than a month since, as a non-resident of the State.

This Sergeant-at-arms, as an individual, has no interest in common with our people, and as an officer he has no duties to perform, but merely lounges in the lobbies of Commons Hall and draws his per diem.

We call the attention of those to the fact, who are so anxiously awaiting and expecting relief at the hands of the Convention.

DISORDER AND CONFUSION.

Manager Cowles, of the Canby troupe presides over a mass of confusion and disorder, never before known in the history of deliberative bodies.

Radical and nigger speakers are applauded by members and spectators with the vim of an out-doors mass meeting, and grave Conventioners are treated with no more consideration or respect, when discussing matters of weight and simport than cross roads politicians and stump orators.

It is absolutely disgusting to witness the manner in which the business of this Convention is transacted.

With a Sergeant-at-arms and a handsome salary, better order should be enforced.

COMING SOUTH.

Brick Pomeroy, the somewhat independent and outspoken editor of the La Crosse Democrat, left his home on the 28th of January for a visit of observation to the Southern States.

During his tour he will visit Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston, and other cities of the South. He will probably include Raleigh in his route, for the purpose of looking in on his especial favorites assembled in our State Capitol.

Ordinance to Levy a Tax of Seventy-Five Per Centum upon Old Debts.

(Introduced by Mr. McDowell, of Chatham.)

SECTION 1. Be it ordained, &c., That there shall be levied and collected during the year, A. D. 1868, a tax of seventy five per centum upon all indebtedness created and arising prior to the 1st day of May, 1865, whether due by judgment, bond, single-bill, note, bill of exchange, draft, check, order, signed or opened account.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That every creditor shall be required to list such indebtedness, with the proper list-taker, by a written statement thereof, to be sworn and subscribed by him before such list-taker, in which he shall state the name of each debtor, the amount due from each, when due, and the dignity of the debt or claim, and the list-takers shall have power, and it shall be their duty to summon any person before them whom they may suspect to be a creditor, as aforesaid, and may enforce his attendance by attachment against his person; if he shall fail to appear upon such summons, and upon such, his appearance, may compel him by process of contempt to disclose upon oath whether he is a creditor within the meaning of this ordinance, and if he admits himself so to be, under the same penalty to compel him to list the indebtedness due to him as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That no suit either in law or equity shall be maintained upon any such indebtedness before any court, or justice out of court, unless the plaintiff therein shall prove upon the trial or hearing, that the indebtedness sued for, shall have been listed, and the tax levied thereon paid prior to the trial, and prior to the 1st day of January, A. D., 1869, in pursuance of the provisions of this ordinance, and it shall be the duty of the court, or justice out of court presiding at such trial or hearing, to require such proof to be made ex mero motu, and to refuse to receive any admission of the fact of such listing and payment.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That the several clerks, clerk and master, and justices, shall not issue an execution upon any judgment rendered prior to the 1st of May, 1865, unless the plaintiff shall produce before them the same proof as to the listing thereof, and payment of the tax thereon, as is heareinbefore required on the trial of any suit brought upon such indebtedness, which proof before the clerk or justice shall be in writing, by an exemplification of the tax list, and the sheriff's receipt for the tax, which proof shall be annexed to the execution so prayed for; and if the clerk or justice shall fail so to do, he shall be liable to the debtor in a penalty of double the sum claimed in the execution, to be recovered on notice and motion in a summary way in any court of record, and they shall be further liable to the superior court of law, as for a contempt, and such failure shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction therefor in the superior court only, they shall in addition to the and imprisonment forfeit their offices as a part of the sentence.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That the provisions of this ordinance shall apply to all new assumptions of any such indebtedness, as is herein required to be listed and taxed, made since the 1st day of May, 1865, whether in writing or by parol, unless the primary indebtedness shall have been reduced on such new assumption or recognition to twenty-five per centum of the principal and interest of the primary indebtedness due when given or unless the same shall have been collected under execution prior to the 1st day of January, 1868.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That no creditor shall be compellable to list any indebtedness as aforesaid, if he shall make oath, in writing, before the list-taker that he has proffered to his debtor to receive twenty-five per centum of his debt, principal and interest, and to take therefor his debtor's note, if there was no security to his primary debt, or to receive therefore a new note with the same, or equal security, as he had on the primary debt and to give his debtor 12 month's time thereon; the said debtor paying interest from date thereof; and that on such affidavit in writing made before any clerk and upon sufficient security being given for the prosecution of the suit as now required by law, it shall, upon the request of such creditor, be the duty of the clerk to whom application may be made, to issue a writ upon such old indebtedness, which suit shall be proceeded with according to the course of the court in the year 1860: Provided, That if the facts stated in such affidavit shall be contradicted by the defendant by counter affidavit, it shall be the duty of the court to cause any issue in fact thereon to be made up, and submitted instanter to a jury for decision, and if the jury shall find a verdict thereon in favor of the plaintiff, the court shall render a judgment as in case of respondent ouster, and the suit shall be proceeded with according to the course of the court as in the year 1860, but if the jury shall find thereon in favor of the defendant, the court shall render judgment as in case of non-suit.

SEC. 7. Be it further ordained, That whenever any person who may owe any such debts shall have applied to his creditor and proffered to give him a new note for twenty-five per centum of the principal and interest of such indebtedness, payable twelve months after date thereof with interest from date, with such or equal security, as the creditor may have on such original indebtedness and such proffer shall be refused by such creditor, such debtor may file a bill in equity setting forth such facts, and sworn, which shall entitle the said debtor to such orders and fiats at chambers, as the nature and circumstances of the particular case may require, and if upon the hearing the court shall be satisfied that the facts stated in the bill are true, a decree shall be made compelling the creditor, (if he shall not swear in his answer and prove that he has listed the debt for taxation and paid the tax thereon,) to elect between paying the tax into court, and having the bill dismissed at his costs, or to surrender the evidence of such indebtedness for cancellation, and execute a release of all such indebtedness to the plaintiff upon the plaintiff's executing a note accoding to the terms of his proffers, and except as before stated the costs be in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 8. Be it further Ordained, That no suit shall be brought upon any cause of action arising, ex contractu, before the 1st day of May, 1865, but within one year from and after the passage of this ordinance.

SEC. 9. Be it fu ther ordained, That so much and such parts of an ordinance entitled "an ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the courts ann rules of pleadings therein," adopted the 23d day of June, A. D., 1866, as conflicts or is inconsistent with an act of the General Assembly entitled "an act to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleaning therein," ratified the 12th day of February, A. D., 1867, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that so much and such parts of either the aforesaid ordinance, or act, or of any other ordinance or law, as may conflict with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CITY AND STATE.

Lecture.

It gives us great pleasure to announce that the Right Rev. Thomas Atkinson, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, this evening. The time and place of its delivery will be made known during the day, by posters on the streets. The subject chosen is, "Personal Impressions of Distinguished Orators of England." The theme is a most admirable one, and the acknowledged taste and abilities of the lecturer assure the public of a rich intellectual feast.

Bishop Atkinson has recently returned from England, whither he went as a delegate to the Pan-Anglican Convention, and the lecture embodies the impressions made on him by oratorical efforts on the floor of Parliament. The object of the lecture—the relief of the poor and suffering—should commend it to the favor of our citizens and draw a very large audience.

Nothing Doing.

Items are scarce. We have done our best for two days, but "no body would go and do nothing," and, consequently, we can't report it.

Several members of the Convention are absent at their homes, and, consequently, no body's hen roost has been robbed to any extent worth mentioning, "as any body knows of," for two whole nights.

We are pretty much in the fix of a French leader of an Orchestra "out west," of whom Artemus Ward speaks thusly:

"He was flourishing his baton in the most frantic manner—the fiddles were squenking—the bass instruments were braying—the cymbals were clashing, and the orchestra was making all the noise it could. But a man in the pit wasn't satisfied. "Louder! louder! louder!" he yelled.—The Frenchman dropped his baton in despair, quietly wiped the perspiration from his brow, told the orchestra to stop playing, and violently spoke as follows:

"Gen'lman may cry loud-er as much as he pleases, but we're we got de wind, by gar!"

Intense study on the part of the reader may enable him to see the application.

The Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

It has been charged on this road that it gives no employment to niggers. The Raleigh and Gaston Railroad is a private corporation, managed in the interest of that corporation, having an undisputed right to employ any class of laborers its managers may see fit, to the exclusion of any "race or color or previous condition."

But the Raleigh and Gaston road does employ nigger laborers, and the distinguished delegate from New Hanover wilfully lied when he made the charge, or he was guilty of intermeddling with that which did not concern him, or his party.

Relief.

The Convention consumed Saturday in discussing the various ordinances proposed for "the relief of the people." Nothing definite was done. We would suggest to that most august body that the very greatest relief it can afford the people of this city and State is, to relieve them of their presence by an immediate removal to the congenial clime of H—ayti.

The Circus.

As will be seen by our column of illustrations, the Circus is coming. When we have had time to study the pictures on the show bills, we will speak further of the performances.

Horse stealing is getting quite common in Eastern North Carolina. The Goldsboro News of the 1st has two advertisements of horses stolen. The editor of that paper thinks that the people will be driven to try offenders, who may be caught, before Judge Lynch, whose code is, "the first thief caught goes up a tree." The same paper chronicles two attempts at burglary in that town.

An actor named Saunders belonging to Dan Castello's Circus was shot in Wilmington on Friday night. He was intoxicated, and it is supposed assaulted the party who shot him.

The corn-crib of Henry G. Williams, Esq., of Nash county was destroyed by fire a few days since. The fire was accidental. Mr. Williams' loss is a severe one in these times of scarcity.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pill, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $20. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

THE DYING VOLUPTUARY.

[The following taken from a superb old Latin poem, will be new to most of our readers:]

I must obey, I may not stay,
The scene of life is ending,
The lot is cast, Death calls at last,
My final hour's impending.
Farewell estates and hopes elate,
All like a song are ending.

The glorious sun, my day is done,
But thou, thy journey keeping,
Go on thy way, great king of day—
I must in death be sleeping.
Night's pall is spread, the light is fled,
My bark to port is sweeping.

Thou moon serene with silver sheen,
Ye planets golden seeming,
And little eyes that star the skies,
For my descendants beaming.
The fates' decree of death to me
Is told by comets streaming.

Three hundred times, three thousand times,
Farewell, thou world defining;
Unsteady, thou and slipery now,
Farewell with all thy smiling.
With falsehoods sweet and artful cheat
No longer me beguiling.

Ye castles bright with gems bedight,
Farewell on high erected,
With marble walls or ivory halls
In Fancy's skies reflected.
I see my bed among the dead,
By Death's pale steeds directed.

Ye beauties rare, whose charms, so fair,
My captive sense delighted;
Delirious dream of love supreme
That all my mind excited.
Now solemn shades o'er all is made!
On sight and seen benighted!

Ye dances valn and sports profane
In wanton chorus singing;
Be still, I pray, your orgies stay,
God's summons now is ringing—
His crier, Death, with startling breath,
My moral sentence bringing.

Delights of life with luxury rife,
The table's social pleasure;
The dainty meats, the honeyed sweets,
And wine cups' crowned treasure,
I loathe you all, while Death doth call
To pledge his brimming measure.

Haste ye away, fade and decay,
Ye rich perfumes and dresses;
Be cold and stale, ye pleasures frail,
Provoking love's caresses,
Foul worms shall dress in loathsomeness
The grave my body presses.

Oh honor's height! oh glory's light!
I leave all honors fleeting:
As hence I go, my fate to know,
Eternity now meeting.
Title and fame and noble name,
How worthless and how cheating!

Ye chosen few, my comrades true,
Dear friends my pleasure sharing;
Insulting death stops every breath,
No wit or wisdom sparing;
And here to-day I leave our play,
My last farewell declaring.

Body, farewell, thy fate I tell,
This final summons hearing;
Thou too hast known and called thine own,
My griefs and joys endearing.
Body and mind, in life combined,
One goal are always nearing.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

From Baltimore, Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock, R. L. Poor, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to
JAS. MCCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.
